

DMCS Summer eNewsletter July 11, 2019

Dear Parents-

Happy July! The lazy days of summer are here...I guess. Not sure if any of you feel them, but I hope you do. Enjoying the long days and soaking in the vitamin D from the sun can do all of us some good!

We are excited to welcome our new pastor, Father Cory Rohlfing to Divine Mercy this month. Please make time to greet him and introduce yourself. Getting to know the students and families from our school and parish is a challenge for any new person, but it is very important. I am happy to begin this new adventure with him as we move forward together.

July is the month of supply delivery at school. Maybe this is where the saying "Christmas in July" comes from! Every day seems to bring more boxes as teacher's orders come in and textbooks and school supplies are delivered. In 30 years in the field of education, I have never lost my fascination for new school supplies. This month you will still find me in the back to school sections of Target and Walmart browsing away. I love to see what they have out each year!

Now that the July 4th holiday is past, we will be accepting donations of gently used dress code clothing for our dress code exchange. Anyone may bring in their gently used dress code clothing to give to others from now until the exchange ends on August 9. We will be open for anyone looking for dress code clothing the weeks of July 16 through August 9. We know that this exchange helps many people and we are happy to provide the opportunity. Please call the office with any questions.

Hiring new teachers is another item on my July list. Last week, Brenna Whitten resigned her position at Divine Mercy to take on a new challenge at Shattuck-St. Mary's. We are so grateful for the gift she has been to our school community over the past 21 years. I wish her nothing but the best in this new adventure.

With her resignation, Janet Brown has decided to move to teaching first grade next year. This will not be the first time that Janet has taught this grade, and she is excited to make the change. Therefore, I am now looking to hire a second grade teacher. Please pray that God sends us the person we need at this time. Thank you!

Remember that our office hours get shorter during the month of July. We are closed on Mondays and Fridays and have limited hours (7:00-1:00) Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Please pay attention to the schedule so that you do not stop in and find the office closed. All of us will be responding to messages and checking email. If you have any questions, feel free to call the office.
